

Republic of the Philippines
OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
COMMISSION ON HIGHER EDUCATION

CHED MEMORANDUM ORDER (CMO)

No. 10
Series of 2023

SUBJECT: ENHANCED POLICIES, STANDARDS AND GUIDELINES (PSGs) ON STUDENT INTERNSHIP ABROAD PROGRAM (SIAP)

In accordance with the pertinent provisions of Republic Act (RA) 7722, otherwise known as the "Higher Education Act of 1994", and in relation with the relevant safeguards provided under RA 11862, otherwise known as the "Expanded Anti-Trafficking in Persons Act of 2022" and its implementing rules and regulations, which amended RA 9208 ("Anti-Trafficking in Persons Act of 2003"), and RA 10364 ("Expanded Anti-trafficking in Persons Act of 2012"); RA 7610, otherwise known as Special Protection of Children Against Abuse, Exploitation and Discrimination Act; RA 8042, otherwise known as "Migrant Worker and Overseas Filipinos Act of 1995" and its amendatory laws and omnibus rules and regulations; RA 11641, otherwise known as the "Department of Migrant Workers Act" and other relevant laws; and pursuant to the Commission en Banc (CEB) Resolution No. 331-2023, dated June 6, 2023, the following policies, standards, and guidelines for student internship abroad program for all Commission on Higher Education (CHED) recognized programs with internship/OJT/practicum subjects are hereby adopted for the information, guidance, and compliance of all concerned.

Article I
GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Section 1. The CHED is mandated to develop and promote programs, policies, systems, and procedures that address globalization, changing foreign policies, and liberalization of trade in goods and services relevant to higher education. As such, CHED encourages and promotes strong academic linkage with businesses and industries abroad for cross-cultural training and skills enhancement to make students competitive for employment in the Philippines and abroad.

Section 2. The implementation of programs particularly the sending of Filipino tertiary students¹ for training and internship abroad requires that CHED and partner agencies adopt measures to ensure the safety and well-being of these students while providing them with applied learning opportunities and cross-cultural training and skills enhancement in reputable companies and training institutions in various parts of the world.

¹ Tertiary Students - persons who are enrolled and engaged in higher education studies

Section 3. In recognition of their respective existing international linkages and networking, the CHED issues this enhanced policies, standards, and guidelines on SIAP for students enrolled in public and private Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) with established Internship Abroad Program.

Article II DEFINITION OF TERMS

This definition of terms shall apply to this CMO:

1. Foreign Host Establishments or Organizations (FHEs/Os) – refer to training venues for student interns duly recognized and registered entities in the country of destination.
2. Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) – refer to educational institutions, private or public, undertaking operations of higher education program/s with an organized group of students pursuing defined studies in higher education, receiving instructions from teachers, usually located in a building or group of buildings in a particular site specifically intended for educational purposes.

For purposes of this CMO, HEIs with any of the following classifications may implement SIAP:

- 2.1 Autonomous HEIs – refer to private HEIs that demonstrate exceptional institutional quality and enhancement through internal QA systems, and demonstrate excellent program outcomes through a high proportion of accredited programs, the presence of Centers of Excellence, and/or Development and/or international certification. In particular, they show evidence of outstanding performance consistent with their horizontal type, e.g., research and publications for universities; creative work and relevant extension programs for colleges; and employability or linkages for professional institutes; and
- 2.2 Deregulated HEIs – refer to private HEIs that demonstrate very good institutional quality and enhancement through internal QA systems, and very good program outcomes through a good proportion of accredited programs, the presence of Centers of Excellence and/or Development, and/or international certification.
3. Institutional Sustainability Assessment (ISA) – refers to the CHED quality assurance process that assesses the institutional sustainability of an HEI in the key area of quality of teaching and learning as supported by governance and management; support for students; relations with the community; and quality of exposure, research and creative work.
4. SUCs Level – refers to the category of state universities and colleges as a result of the evaluation conducted by CHED.

5. Higher Education Degree Program – refers to the specific courses of study in the higher level of the education system leading to a bachelor's, master's, or doctoral degree.

For purposes of this CMO, HEIs program offerings with any of the following designations may implement SIAP:

- 5.1 Center of Development (COD) – refers to a designation granted by CHED in recognition of a unit's evident above-average performance in teaching, research, and extension functions; and
 - 5.2 Center of Excellence (COE) – refers to a designation granted by CHED in recognition of a unit's exemplary performance in its teaching, research, and extension functions.
6. Inter-Agency Council Against Trafficking (IACAT) – refers to a body mandated by law to coordinate and monitor the implementation of Republic Act 9208 or the Anti-Trafficking in Persons Act of 2003 with the Department of Justice as the lead agency.
 7. Internship/On-the-Job Training (OJT)/Practicum – refers to the application of classroom learning to actual work such as but not limited to commercial and industrial services, government or non-government agencies on the field laboratory.
 8. International Linkages – a voluntary combination of Philippine and foreign institutions for the furtherance of objectives dictated by their mutual interest.
 9. Foreign Service Post (FSP) – refers to all Philippine embassies, missions, consulates general, and other foreign service establishments maintained by the Department of Foreign Affairs pursuant to RA 7157, otherwise known as the "Philippine Foreign Service Act of 1991".
 10. Level of Program Accreditation – refers to accreditation awarded by non-government accrediting bodies recognized by CHED to a particular program indicating that it has attained a certain standard of quality over and above the minimum requirements prescribed by CHED.
 11. Student interns – refer to Filipino students enrolled in CHED recognized programs or courses offered by HEIs and qualified to undergo SIAP as required by their programs/courses.

Article III OBJECTIVES

Section 4. The Program aims to:

- 4.1 Provide tertiary students enrolled in HEIs implementing SIAP the opportunity to acquire practical knowledge, skills, and desirable attitudes

- in recognized Foreign Host Establishments or Organizations (FHEs/Os) in foreign countries;
- 4.2 Enhance the students' work values, competencies, and discipline as they relate to others in a multicultural work environment;
 - 4.3 Promote global competitiveness of students through their training, exposure, and acculturation in a foreign country;
 - 4.4 Strengthen and enrich the degree programs in HEIs in order to deliver levels of knowledge and skills necessary in a dynamic competitive world; and
 - 4.5 Protect and safeguard students undergoing internship abroad from harassment, exploitation, deplorable training conditions, and such other conditions that contravene or defeat the purpose of the internship.

Article IV SCOPE AND COVERAGE

Section 5. The internship abroad program is voluntary in nature thus, students are given the option to render their internship/OJT/practicum locally or internationally.

All internships conducted abroad for purposes of completion of the academic degree shall be governed by this CMO, except internships in the agriculture program.

Only HEIs authorized to implement SIAP are allowed to conduct internship abroad for CHED recognized programs with internship/OJT/practicum subject or course in their curriculum.

For internship in agriculture program, the same shall be governed by another set of guidelines considering that the national government has prioritized agriculture activities.

Programs under the cultural exchanges, international linkages, and extension services are not covered by this CMO.

GUIDE ON INTERNSHIP PLAN

Internship plan includes among others, the description of the following:

I. INTRODUCTION:

During the internship program, the student interns are assigned to different areas and venues, while in the Foreign Host Establishments/Organizations (FHEs/Os), the student interns are given actual work experience in various departments that may be determined and mutually agreed upon by the school, FHE/Os or the student intern.

The curriculum is designed in a way that the students acquire practical knowledge, basic concept, skills, and work values in recognized FHEs/Os in host countries.

II. GOALS/OBJECTIVES:

The exposure to different work situations is provided to enable the student intern to experience and observe the practical application of theories learned in school.

At the end of the internship program, the student intern should be able to:

1. Identify key positions in the industry and related operations to their corresponding tasks and responsibilities;
2. Define the standard operational procedure in each of the departments assigned;
3. Identify and operate the equipment, facilities, and layout design in each of the departments assigned;
4. Perform required skills and techniques necessary in the execution of operational procedures of the assigned tasks in accordance with the existing workplace, health and safety standards; and
5. Analyze and evaluate operational procedures in each assigned task and recommend any appropriate course of action to be taken to improve procedures.

III. REQUIREMENTS OF THE PROGRAM:

A. List of documents for the student internship as stipulated in the CMO

B. Orientation and Briefing

After the application period, orientation and pre-internship seminars shall be set. Training expectations, guidelines, rules and regulations, and course requirements shall be discussed. An open forum provides a venue for clarification on certain issues. The speakers from the FHEs/Os may be invited to share their insights, expectations, and experiences.

C. Internship Contract

An internship contract is signed by the student intern, the Higher Education Institution (HEI), and the FHE/O. This agreement identifies the student intern's tasks and some policies regarding the program.

D. Performance

The culmination of the internship program is the evaluation of the student intern's performance. The evaluation should contain the following:

Name of Student Intern: _____

Name of the FHEs/Os and address: _____

Internship Period: Start: _____ End: _____

Department/Tasks	Period	Student Outcomes	Ratings	Signature of Supervisor/Mentor

E. Certification

A certification with the logo by the FHEs/Os is issued to student interns after the completion of the designated number of hours. The certification bears the seal, signed by the FHEs/Os authorized representative.

SAMPLE OF MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT FOR SIAP

The Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) may include among others, the following provisions:

I. PURPOSE OF THE AGREEMENT

This section states the big picture of why and how the parties came together and includes:

1. Name of parties involved
2. Brief description of the scope of work
3. Financial obligations of each party, if applicable
4. Key contacts for each party involved

II. DEFINITION OF TERMS, IF APPLICABLE

III. DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

This section identifies the mutual and joint responsibilities (collaborative tasks) and the expected result of those joint efforts. In addition, it lists the specific roles and responsibilities of each entity and clarifies the purpose of the MOA as stipulated in the CMO.

IV. EVENTS OF DEFAULT

The grounds for blacklisting of Foreign Host Establishments or Organizations and any HEIs found to have committed the violations of the guidelines shall be meted with the appropriate sanctions stated in the CMO.

V. EXCLUSION OF PARTNERSHIP

The parties hereto expressly agree that nothing contained or implied in the AGREEMENT shall constitute a partnership or joint venture within the parties hereto or any of them do not constitute nor be deemed to constitute any Party as an affiliate to any Party for any purpose whatsoever.

VI. NOTICES AND GENERAL MATTERS

Notices under the AGREEMENT may be delivered by hand, or email, or by registered mail to the addresses specified.

VII. REMEDIES

No remedy confirmed by any of the provisions of the AGREEMENT is intended to be excluded of any other remedy which is otherwise available by law, equity statute or otherwise and each and any other remedy shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given hereunder or not hereafter existing by law, equity, statute or otherwise.

VIII. SEVERANCE

If any provision of the AGREEMENT or part thereof is rendered void, illegal or unenforceable by any legislation to which it is subject, it shall be rendered void, illegal or not enforceable only to that extent and no further.

IX. CONFIDENTIALITY

The AGREEMENT, as well as its terms and conditions herein, shall be held in strict confidence and that no portion or part hereof may be reproduced or be revealed to any personnel or entity other than the signatories herein or their authorized representative.

X. SEPARABILITY

The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of the AGREEMENT shall not affect or impair other provisions that are otherwise valid, binding and effective.

XI. GOVERNING LAW AND ARBITRATION

The AGREEMENT shall be governed by and construed according to the laws of the Republic of the Philippines.

XII. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

The AGREEMENT constitutes the entire agreement between the parties, their successors and assignees. Any and all matters or things that the parties may have agreed, but have not reduced in writing herein, shall be void and ineffective.

XIII. DURATION

This segment identifies the effective date of the AGREEMENT, its term (if there is one), and how the agreement can be modified or terminated.

XIV. SIGNATURES OF PARTIES' PRINCIPALS

Finally, to demonstrate agreement with the terms of the MOA, spaces are provided for the names and signatures of an official from each party who is authorized to approve agreements on the party's behalf. A space for the date the agreement was signed is also required. The MOA is not in effect until all parties have signed the MOA. Each party should then be provided with a signed original, duly notarized and authenticated before the concerned Philippine Foreign Service Post.
